

Code of practice for Officials and Volunteers

KING'S LYNN ANGLING ASSOCIATION

King's Lynn Angling Association is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well being of all its members.

The Association believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with the Association Welfare Officer all Officers are listed in the club book.

The essence of good ethical conduct and practice is summarized below. All Officials volunteers must:

- ✓ Consider the well being and safety of participants before the development of performance.
 - ✓ Develop an appropriate working relationship with participants, based on mutual trust and respect
 - ✓ Make sure all activities are appropriate to the age, ability and experience of those taking part.
 - ✓ Promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play).
 - ✓ Display consistently high standards of behavior and appearance.
 - ✓ Follow all guidelines laid down by the national governing body and the club.
 - ✓ Hold appropriate valid qualifications and insurance cover.
 - ✓ Never exert undue influence over performers to obtain personal benefit or reward.
 - ✓ Never condone rule violations, rough play or the use of prohibited substances.
 - ✓ Encourage participants to value their performances and not just results.
 - ✓ Encourage and guide participants to accept responsibility for their own performance and behavior.
